Marriott ...
There are so many people in the world...
Why is it you, Marriott?
Even if the rose changes its name,
It will still have the same smell.
Why don't you give up your status and...
What am I saying...
This is so embarrassing.

Love is always accompanied with lies,
If you really love me, you need to tell me sincerely
Then, I shall swear to the Moon...
No, you shouldn't swear to the Moon,
Since it changes its shape every night.
It shows that your love can be easily changed
Then who shall I swear to?

After that,
I will call Marriott to come back here and wait for you to wake up.
Then, both of you will escape from this community secretly, without any one finding out.
Please give me that medicine!
However, once you use it, you will be left with an imprint.
The people on Earth will call you a "witch" and will be hated.
This is the contract of the demons. Even so, are you going to do it?
...I will
Do anything to be able to live with Marriott.

...I see.
That's good.
So this is the witch's imprint...
As promised, this is the poison.

Yeah, something like that.

That night, I drank the medicine Faust gave me,
I am a demon.
The time I opened my eyes,
I was in the dark, cold tomb.
holding the empty bottle.
Beside me, was the already dead Marriott.
Thus, I used Marriott's dragger...
And followed after him...

Hans... No, Faust,
Why didn't you tell Marriott about the plan?
The second Medicine was actually a poison, right?
You actually wanted to kill me, right?
Marriott didn't die,
That was the Medicine that causes people not to age and die.
...It's actually the opposite,
However, at the time, you wanted me to drink that?
